The Incidental Tourist

In Mexico City you can hail a VW Beetle taxi and a little brown guy pops up from behind your seat and he and the driver proceed to beat the living shit out of you, and eventually there you'll be a-wandering bareass in a neighborhood where they'd murder you for a peso, which, fortunately, you aint got. And here I thought the Big Apple was bad. You just get a hindoo who can't do, no clue where a fuckin thing is.
